

Summary of Reviews for

January 21 - February 6, 2011

“Few will be the audience members not moved by this simple but beautiful piece of musical theatre, one which had Sunday’s San Diego Musical Theatre audience raving about the show.”

- L.A. Stage Scene

“The Story Of My Life has local tongues wagging as a sensitive yet sentimental work pointing out the frailties of friendships making it worthy of a trip downtown.”

- San Diego Jewish World

“The production elements are first rate ... see The Story Of My Life for the songs, the performances and the production.”

- SanDiego.com

“One of the most moving, beautifully written, and brilliantly performed musicals I have ever seen.”

- Phil Golden, audience member

“Absolutely marvelous in every way. One of the highlights of my theatre experiences in San Diego over the past year.”

- Goldstar Member

“This show is not to be missed. Amazing talent and an incredible story.”

- Cheryl Berkowitz Hatkoff, audience member
